Dear Effa:

Thanks kindly for your very kind invitation to attend your annual opening and I will be more than glad to be there: Therefore I will be pleased if you will send invitations for both Mr. Jackson and myself.

If there is anything I can do, Effa, to help you during the coming baseball season, please call on me.

With kindest regards to Abe and sincere best wishes for a successful season. I am

Very truly yours,

Robert L. Douglas
